GSLDTC 2nd Scent Work Trial

was held on Feb 2nd & 3rd at the West Jordan Armory, and just like the 1st trial the 2nd was just as successful and fun for all. But before we get into the brags, Wendy sent me a qualifying rate graph from all the 2018 trials held that is interesting for those of you doing Scent Work. As with any companion event you choose to pursue, it takes commitment, training and a bond with your partner.

CONGRATULATIONS to ALL!!!!

The next few pages will show off some of our members brags from the Scent Work Trial.

From Wendy McCleery: Wonderful weekend at Great Salt Lake Dog Training Club second Scent Work Trial. Monroe finished his Handler Decrimination title with two 1st place ribbons. Earned a second leg in Advanced Container. Olly the 8 month old cutie earned 2 legs in Novice Containers! Thank you to all my friends that worked so hard this weekend to make this trial happen. Judges Pia Paulsen and Laurie Schlossnagle were amazing!!

From Lisa Quibel: Had our second scent work trial this weekend. Super proud of Luna with 7 qualifying runs, 4 of which were her first Advanced legs (Interior and Container). She also got her title for Interior Novice. By far the one I'm the most proud of was her last Interior run with a very chair and table crowded room, it was the most complicated search we have ever done and she came out first!!

Thanks to all of the stewards who came out and made this event happen, along with the GSLDTC board and event committee. Special shout out to my volunteer committee, Kelsey and Lisa - can't do it without you two!! And of course Darlane and Toni for all the help you give us every week and the extra work you put into this weekend. Thanks for letting me be your sidekick, Toni!

From Kim Wabel: Tayla and I had a fun weekend at our first AKC scent-work trial. We finished our Novice Container and Novice Interior titles and got our first leg for our Advanced Container. We had 7 qualifying runs out of 8.

From Edie Schoeppe: Nosework!! A super fun weekend hosted by Great Salt Lake Dog Training club. A great bunch of volunteers and judges. Paisley loved it!! 3 new titles including an excellent title and legs toward other elements. And to ice the cake, a Hight in Trial Saturday from the excellent class!! Had a great time visiting with friends and celebrating their success. Nice job GSLDTC!!!! Thanks everyone!

From Cynthia Heyman: Lots of ribbons for the Farmdog boys today! Jet got five Qs out of six runs, thanks for handling him Chris! Connor got three Q's out of six runs. We can't get an excellent containers Q to save our lives but I'll be training that! We had a great time, we love this sport!

The Great Salt Lake Dog Training Club presents
Catherine Zinsky
April 27 & 28, 2019

About Catherine Zinsky

Catherine has trained Dobermans, Cattle Dogs, and now Border Collies for nearly 40 years and has been actively exhibiting in AKC, UKC, and ASCA trials during that period. She has achieved multiple AKC championships in both conformation and obedience and has dabbled in agility, though obedience training and competition are her main focus and interest. Catherine has shown and placed at AKC National Invitational Competitions, State Top Dog Competitions, has been awarded more than 200 High in Trials (including at National Breed competitions), over 100 High Combined wins, and more than 20 perfect '200' scores. She is also an ASCA obedience trial judge and periodically presents obedience seminars for clubs throughout the nation.

Catherine had the honor to have been interviewed by both Dog Sport Magazine and the National Border Collie Magazine, Borderlines, for her achievements (2008 & 2009). She was then requested to write obedience articles regularly for Dog Sport Magazine. This arrangement continued for four years. Additionally, she writes a monthly column for Front and Finish, The Dog Trainer's News entitled "Playing by the Rules", which she has written for over twelve years. Catherine has also been published in Borderlines and in the Cattle Dog newsletter, All Breed Obedience Club's newsletter, DogDaze, and in Hidden Valley Obedience Club's newsletter, Come for News.

The author's philosophy in dog training sounds simple: be fair and honest. Being fair and honest is, however, not nearly as simple as it sounds. When working with dogs and teaching any given skill or part of any skill, her ultimate goal is to have the dog truly understand what is being asked. Catherine believes that this understanding allows for greater confidence and flexibility in the dog. A dog that understands and who has confidence is a dog that will enjoy showing and will enjoy performing his entire life.

Ultimately her desire--through teaching, writing for Front and Finish Dog Magazine, providing a Competitive Obedience Toolbox on her website, www.gettoready.net, and the publication of her book entitled Attitude + Attention = Teamwork! Seven Steps to Success--is to help others develop a deeper understanding of the trainer/canine bond and in so doing, have a more rewarding relationship and greater success.

"Becoming a decent trainer has given me the gift of patience. Working with my dogs has shown me the beauty of unselfish love, of individuality, and of true devotion. It goes both ways..."

Space is limited; preference will be given to working teams (maximum of 20 teams). Work will be both individual and in groups. Audit slots available.

Being held at The Hahn Homestead Arena
2834 West 14600 South
Bluffdale, UT

Please bring your own chair.

8:00 a.m. to approximately 5 p.m. each day.

Dogs should be crated or leash-walked outside when not working.

Lunch and snacks provided each day.

Prices are as follows:

Working team = $175 for both days

Working team = $130 for one day

Audit slot = $100 for both days (no dog)

Audit slot = $60 for one day (no dog)

Catherine's seminar is geared toward all performance venues. So, if you're just getting started or you are doing obedience, rally, agility or any other performance with your dog, you don't want to miss this opportunity! It's beneficial for companion dogs too!

SATURDAY "Attitude + Attention = Teamwork"	SUNDAY "An Introduction to Learning How to Trouble-Shoot Training Issues"
Focus will be directed at the trainer/handler: we're going to look at training—the way people train—and dissect it. We're going to look at Attitude—THE HANDLER'S ATTITUDE. And Attention!—THE HANDLER'S ATTENTION. And through this approach ultimately bolster the dog's attitude and attention so that the end result is teamwork. There are seven basic topics that Catherine will cover, subjects that must be addressed in order to succeed and ultimately attain teamwork.	The goal is to look at various exercises and the inherent problems therein, to dissect the exercise and so discover where the source of each problem starts so that a remedy can be more easily found. Clarifying the problem is the fastest road to fixing it! It is my desire to show handlers how to do this on their own—as each problem surfaces before the problem becomes ingrained—so that they can become better trainers and have greater success. Requests from the attendees would be required. "An Introduction to Becoming the Ring Master" This presentation is targeted for the average, unseasoned exhibitor and is directed at showing how an exhibitor can smooth out the rough spots and be in charge of their performance. Areas covered would include Pre-ring strategy, Nerve Jitters, Ring Pattern Analysis, Footwork, Handler Errors and being in control of one's destiny and ultimate success.

Did you miss the January General Meeting? Our speaker was Kelsey Neeley taking about homemade healthy dog treats with samples. I have included one of her recipes below for you. The February Speaker will be JoDee Sands talking and teaching about Canine CPR & First Aid, you won't want to miss it!

Peanut Butter & Apple Sauce Cookies

Ingredients:

4 cups whole wheat, coconut, rice or oat flour
 2/3 cup unsweetened applesauce
 1/2 cup natural peanut butter (Adam's or alike)
 2 eggs

Instructions:

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Combine the flour, peanut butter, applesauce and eggs in large bowl. Mix thoroughly. If the dough is sticky, add a little more flour until you can handle the dough without it sticking to your hands.

Transfer dough to a flat surface and roll out to 1/4 inch thickness. Using a cookie cutter, cut out your shapes. I use a large heart shaped cookie cutter and can get about 12 large cookies from this recipe.

Transfer onto a baking sheet lined with baking mat or parchment paper.

Bake 20—25 minutes or until the cookies are dry and starting to darken at the edges.

Trick Dog Class has been VERY Busy!! News from Lisa: We had THIRTEEN new titles on January 29th! 12 novice, 5 of which were DMWYD and require 15 tricks, 3 dogs without their CGC had to do 10. Plus an Intermediate!! Way to go everyone!! This is the most dogs we have ever done in a night.

Special shout out to Lisa, Kelsey, and Linda for all your help - together we evaluated over 130 tricks!!

Member's Page

Next sign ups will be March 5th & 6th, 2019. Tuesday's classes start night of sign up, Wednesday classes start on March 13th, 2019. Please do not bring dogs to sign ups.

From Wendy McCleery: IKC Fun Match: Super fun at the Intermountain Kennel Club match in Farmington yesterday!! Thanks to the club and judges Lisa and Monique. Olly was Puppy group one and Best Puppy in Match

From Wendy McCleery: Olly Olly by golly! New UKC Champion! 5 group 1 and Reserve Best in Show thanks to judges Joyce Hansen, Judith and Bruce Lehman, Kathrynne Brown and Teri Yool. What a wild weekend!

Member's Page Con't

From Tonya Worthington: Yay, I knew she could do it! (With the help of amazing instructors, Lisa Quibell-Ware, Kelsey Neeley and Linda, and her awesome support team) Mandy was able to complete all her tricks to earn her the title of Trick Dog Novice! I am so proud of her and truly believe that she really enjoyed herself, even though she has her limitations because of her spondylosis and bad ACLs she still managed to do enough tricks to earn her title. I'm not sure if she will be physically capable to do intermediate but still want to continue classes just because I think she enjoys getting out, she has actually been looking forward to her classes. I'm sure she will let me know when she has had enough.

From April Bruce: Proud Breeder moment ~
Ruger just got Best In Show at the UKC show!!

From Jessica Buhlman: Great weekend in Las Vegas!! I am so proud and excited to tell everyone that Ari earned two UDX (Utility Dog Excellent) legs so that brings us to five (out of ten). Half way there! 😊 Also proud of Corey this weekend, he earned four Master Rally legs (also out of ten) and he had very nice scores. Very proud of my very good boys!!
