AKC Announces the First Trick Dog National Competition

Taken from the AKC site

We will begin accepting application submissions for the AKC Trick Dog National Competition on September 2, 2019. Applications will be available on that date.

Attention AKC Trick Dogs! We are pleased to announce the First AKC Trick Dog National Competition.

AKC Elite Performer Trick Dogs everywhere can participate in this inaugural event.

How it works: Submit a video of your dog's AKC Trick Dog routine.

As long as your dog has the Elite Performer Trick Dog title (by September 2, 2019), you can submit a routine.

If you have more than one great routine, you may submit up to two videos (per dog) to the competition. If two videos for a dog are submitted, only one can win.

- The routine may, but does not have to adhere to all of the requirements for earning your AKC Elite Performer Trick Dog title. For example, the Elite Performer title requires that you use at least 5 props and 5 Performer level tricks. While you don't have to do this in your submission for the 2019 competition, keep in mind that performances with props and higher level tricks may be likely to score better.
- The routine must be no longer than 6 minutes (not including the set-up or take down of props). A minimum of 10 tricks should be included.
- The video must be shot in one continuous take as if the dog was performing their routine at a show.
- As is the case with all Elite Performer routines, there must be a theme or story. For this virtual competition, you may, but are not required to, include an audience in the video.
- The routine may include music and props. A script may be read by a helper, the handler may tell the story, the video may include written words to narrate the story, or the handler can use music to depict the mood (e.g., the story is the dog goes to France and French music plays as the dog does the tricks).

- Handlers may wear costumes; dogs may wear a decorative collar or neck ruffle but may not wear costumes.
- You may use a new video, a video previously submitted to AKC for review, or a video of a past trick dog performance.
- The dog must be living at the time of the submission.
- For the video, keep in mind that AKC would like to post the winning video. Think about the background (e.g., not your kitchen) and your style of dress (e.g., shoes are a good thing!)
- The routines will be judged based on:
 - ⇒ creativity
 - ⇒ fluency (accuracy of tricks, difficulty)
 - ⇒ flow from one trick to the next
 - ⇒ handling skills
 - ⇒ entertainment value
 - ⇒ overall impression (background, etc.)
- The application including the video link must be received by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, November 1, 2019. Submissions may be sent starting September 2, 2019.

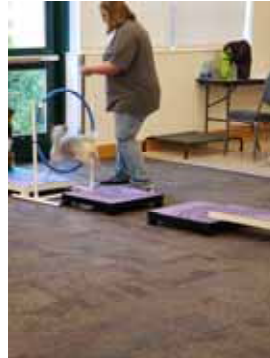

The winner of the 2019 AKC Trick Dog Competition will receive a cash prize of $500 and two semi-finalists will each receive $250. The winners will be featured in AKC media, their videos will be on the AKC Trick Dog web page, and they will receive a commemorative plaque.

The winner will be announced December 2, 2019.

For more details and an application to submit a video, see: <https://www.akc.org/sports/trick-dog/>

Thinking about making the 3rd Tuesday of the month a CGC test day for people not attending our club classes. It's unfair to put some of these teams in with our classes who have spent 8 weeks working together. More to come on that.

From Trick Class: 5 New Novice Trick Dogs!

From Monique Latteier: Another first for us, mom says I rocked it at at the UKC show going BIS.. Another proud moment. Malik

From Kristi Rasmussen: June 13— High Triple and High Combined in Rally today at the Blackfoot shows under judge Carolyn Wray. Way to go Seti!

June 14—It was Aloha day at the Blackfoot shows and Seti won High Triple and High Combined in Rally with three 100s under judge Betty Brask.

It was a great day because he achieved his Rally Advanced Excellent 4 (RAE4) and his Rally Master 3 (RM3) titles. We had to celebrate with pictures at the flamingos with his friends Corey and Ari. So proud of Seti June 16—High Triple and High Combined in Rally today under judge Carolyn Wray at the Pocatello Kennel Club in Blackfoot, ID. Huge thanks to both the PKC and the Eagle Rock Kennel Club for four fantastic days of shows and to the stewards and others that helped make these shows so fun and successful. Love my Seti

From Jessica Buhlman: Aloha Day at the dog show in Blackfoot! Corey earned his Rally Advanced Excellent 3 (RAE3) and now has 10 out of 20 triple Q's towards his Rally Championship (RACH)!! Super fun day with great friends! Our boys and their friend Seti played with the flamingos after the show today.

From Lisa Quibel & Allison Russell: So these two boys finally got around to getting their CGCs tonight! I kind of love that neither were looking at the camera, their focus is right where it should be. It's been a long, hard road with Starky, but man I proud of this boy! Lisa with Starky & Allison with Legend.

From Lisa Quibel: I am so incredibly proud of my Luna this weekend!! She had a 75% qualifying rate for our Scent Work trial. She titled four times, Buried Novice, Exterior Novice (which finished her (Novice title), Advanced Interior, and Advanced Buried. Advanced Buried was a surprise as she qualified all her Buried runs which has not always been her strong suit. We now only need three more legs to finish her Advanced level

Special thanks to the judges, committee, stewards, and everyone at GSLDTC that pitched in over the weekend. We had a lot of members that just jumped in and helped which I am so grateful for. It takes so many hands to run these events and it was a good one!!

From Allison Russell: Kato did some things this weekend. Our first weekend out for Scentwork he titled in Novice Exteriors. 1 qualifier in Advanced Exteriors
And 2 qualifies in Novice Interiors!

From Wendy McCleery: Thank you to the members of Great Salt Lake Dog Training Club for such a super weekend of 4 Scent Work Trials. Olly Golly finished his Novice Containers title. Monroe finished his Advanced Containers title. Have to admit that Buried sucked for Olly and Monroe but we will keep at it.... Thank you to our super judges, Hallie McMullen and Laurie Schlossnagle, you two are amazing!!!

From Edie Schoepp: Nosework!! Another great trial weekend with Great Salt Lake Dog Training Club! Super group from stewards to hospitality!! Paisley and Sy worked hard!! Paisley nailed 3 excellent exterior Qs for a title. She also did her final interior excellent run for a title. 2 rooms with 3 odor hides in 50.17 seconds! Sy got 6 Qs out of 7 runs in his first AKC event!! It was so fun to see friends and so many different dog breeds there!! Very proud of my students who all had great work!! Thanks to the club and great judges who worked so hard!! I'm blessed to have fun things to do with my dogs!!

From Brenda Santistevan: A busy and fun weekend! Willow got 5 qualifying scentwork scores. The first one finished up her novice title in buried. Then she got all three exterior scores giving her the novice exterior title. She also nailed her first try at advanced buried, which is her first step towards an advanced title. Woohoo! Willow got the BIG ribbon! She has now achieved a novice title in ALL FOUR scentwork elements: interior, exterior, containers, buried. An accomplishment to be proud of. A big thanks to Toni and Darlana and everyone at GSLDTC for all the great teaching and support.

Ribbon ceremony for first trial, Brody earned 2 3rd places and 1 first place! I am over the moon proud of him! The thirds are for interior and exterior, the first is for buried!

From Cynthia Heyman: Jet and Maze got to do AKC scent work today! They had some hard courses but Jet got his last advance buried leg for his SWA across the board advance scent work title! He also got his first interior excellent leg that was really fun! Maze got his last novice exterior leg for his SWN title woot! Thanks for the fun searches by Laurie Schlossnagle, an excellent SW judge!

From Sheryl Hohle: The photos are back from the Redmond, OR show. Here's Dash, earning his CH with a 5-point major. Thank you Karen Culver! CH Salti's Dash of Cayenne RN, (Odon X Perp) - and he now has his own page on saltivislas.com
