

The Great Salt Lake Dog Training Club presents

Patty Biggins

The Training Game

May 18 & 19, 2024

About Patricia Biggins

Patty is a long-time exhibitor in obedience. She has been training dogs since she could walk, a passion inherited from her grandfather. While she has trained, exhibited, enjoyed and achieved top level titles in many venues, she enjoys the challenge of combining obedience and enjoyment for the dog. A teacher by profession, she knows the value of positive reinforcement and breaking things down to the smallest step possible.

She started her obedience journey with the family Siberian Husky and stayed with that breed for multiple dogs before switching to the Belgian Tervuren, a breed she remains with to this day. Her students have included dogs from all the recognized AKC groups and have done well, achieving HITs and national rankings. Her own dogs have all been nationally ranked, garnered many HITs and HCs, and have received multiple invites to national competitions. Her current dog, Vjatar, went from CD to UD in nine shows.

Her goal is for every team to achieve attitude and accuracy. Since each dog is an individual, this goal is best achieved when the owner learns to understand their dog and to constantly adjust their training to the needs of their partner. Patty has given seminars throughout the Western states as well as in other countries. Every seminar is unique, designed with the needs of the participants in mind.

Comments from previous seminar goers:

"She is brilliant. Her ideas are so simple, yet I never thought of them." Cathy L.

"I've never been to a seminar that was so well organized." Cindi S.

"I'm sure she speaks dog!" Lisa O.

"You can tell she is a teacher; she is very easy to understand." Suzi B.

"I believe training is a game, with rules and goals. Once you and your dog understand both, you will increase your teamwork and enjoyment of your time together."
